KING OF

endless worth

NO ONE COULD EXPRESS HOW MUCH YOU DESERVE.

THOUGH I'M WEAK AND POOR,

all I have is yours

START TALKING

- When you were a teen was there a pop star, athlete, or celebrity that you idolized? Who was it?
- How did your idolatry present itself?

START THINKING

God knows our natural inclination is to worship things. He desires our worship and detests it when we worship things other than him. As Christ-followers we are called to worship God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit with all that we are.

START DIGGING

Read 2 Samuel 6:12-22, Job 1:13-22, Daniel 3:8-30, Luke 21:1-4, Acts 16:19-26

- Share some of the ways you worship God beyond Sunday church services.
- What do you think about King David's response to his wife, Michal?
- Would you worship God in a way that made you look silly, undignified or even humiliating?
- When facing loss and heartache, are you still able to worship? Why or why not?
- Can you share how you found the ability to worship in a difficult time?
- Worshipping God is not a life or death proposition in the United States, but can you imagine what you would do if you were Daniel?
- What does it look like in our society to worship income and material resources?
- How does this compare to the way the widow worshiped God with her meager offering of two coins?

START SHARING

- Discuss what it means to be a consumer of worship versus an investor in worship.
- Google Matt Redman's song, *The Heart of Worship*¹, and listen to it as a group.
- Consider the neighbors in your life. How can you be a good samaritan to them?

START SHARING, CONTINUED

- What strikes you about the message of this song?
- What can you do to engage more in a lifestyle of worship?

START PRAYING

Lord, I'm coming back to the heart of worship. And it's all about You. I'm sorry, Lord for the thing I've made it because it's all about You, Jesus. Amen.

START DOING

Decide what you need to do in order to intentionally live and view your your life as an opportunity to worship. Before you attend church this week spend some time asking God to prepare your heart and mind to focus on worshipping him.

What changes will you make this week to bring you into deeper worship of God?
